Simply complete and sign both forms and return to the Foster Care Association. Once these are received, we will notify Foodbank and they will make up an ID for you. You can then shop there whenever you wish and access their food which is reduced in price.

Foodbank has a handling fee which is applied to dry foods and fruit and vegetables. Food available changes on a daily basis. Food received from Foodbank may not be sold or exchanged for services other than as part of on-site meal programmes such as soup kitchens or drop-in centres, where a nominal charge may be levied for prepared meals.

Please note that Foster Care Association has signed the following Agreement with Foodbank:

“Foodbank will make every effort to ensure that the quality of food supplied to the agency is of the highest possible standard. However, it takes no responsibility for the quality and standard of food supplied. Some products may be beyond the manufacturer’s recommended “use by/best by” date or the quality may vary from similar merchantable products. Foodbank shall have no responsibility for loss or injury arising out of food provided by Foodbank.

In the event that a third party to whom the Agency has supplied food makes any claim against Foodbank, the Agency agrees to indemnify and hold Foodbank harmless against any loss, damage, costs and expenses including legal fees which Foodbank or its donors may suffer or incur arising out of such claim.”

I have been made aware that my nomination for membership of the Foodbank brings responsibilities and agree to abide by the responsibilities referred to below:

1. The membership card that is given to me by Foodbank is to be used by me (the signatory) and for my immediate family needs only and cannot be used to buy food for any other family.
2. I also accept that it is my responsibility to ensure that no children (under 17) are allowed to accompany me onto the Foodbank premises.
3. Foster Care Association of WA Inc. will not under any circumstances act as guarantor for payment of any money on my behalf to the Foodbank.

I have read and understand that I am bound by the above Agreement.
